NEGOTIATIONS LEGAL STATUS

Under state law, municipal employees have the right of self-organization to affiliate with labor organizations of their own choosing, and the right to be represented by labor organizations of their choice in conferences and negotiations with their municipal employers or their representative on questions of wages.

The Board recognizes the CESA #9 Educators as the exclusive bargaining representative for professional staff working directly with students.

The Board is committed to an open shop philosophy and it shall be incumbent upon the Board to protect the rights of those members of its staff not wishing to be represented by the bargaining unit.
