BOARD NEGOTIATING AGENTS

The Board of Control may establish an ad hoc committee to represent the Board in negotiations with labor organizations.

The Committee may:

- Delegate the actual negotiating process upon approval of the Board.
- Review negotiation proposals and monitor the progress of negotiations.
- Recommend to the Board when it may be necessary to secure assistance with the negotiation process.
- Perform additional functions as assigned by the Board.
- Make recommendations on negotiated agreements understanding that the Board of Control retains final authority for approval or disapproval of negotiated items.

Tentative Approval: April 6, 1988

FINAL APPROVAL: July 6, 1988
